

Trinity College Communication Skills

CITIZENS OF THE FUTURE | OUNDLE SCHOOL | 12-17 YEARS

The Communication Skills exam is designed around a series of real-world, practical tasks, including job interview and CV preparation, giving presentations and leading discussions and debate. This exam develops all the necessary skills to excel in education and in the workplace.

This exam is practical, performance-based, conducted as a group of three or more students. Trinity College Communication Skills exams are available at 3 levels, from Foundation to Advanced. The Citizens of the future course at Oundle is designed to complement the Trinity College Communication Skills exam.

TEST FORMAT

COMPONENT	PURPOSE
Communication	The ability to express oneself in a clear and concise manner, using appropriate language, tone, projection and body language.
Interaction	The ability to relate to other people, demonstrating the ability to listen, show understanding and respond appropriately in discussion on familiar and unfamiliar topics. This will happen between the student and the examiner.
Analysis	The ability to assimilate and evaluate information from a variety of sources and to develop and express one's own ideas.
Performance	The ability to prepare and deliver a presentation, combining the student's own views and ideas with research on a subject in a creative manner. We look for active and energetic purpose in both formal and informal situations to engage and persuade an audience.
